

MyLab/Mastering Student Temporary Access

What is Temporary Access?

Temporary access allows you to start using MyMathLab or MyStatLab from the beginning of the course without payment. Once you set up temporary access, you will have 14 days to upgrade to full access, either by purchasing an access code or by paying online.

Setting Up Temporary Access

When you register for MyMathLab (or MyStatLab), the temporary access option will appear on the bottom of the payment screen:

Upgrading from Temporary Access to Full Access

Sometime before your temporary access expires, you will receive an email message from Pearson Education reminding you to upgrade to full access. If you do not upgrade your account within 14 days, you will be blocked from MyMathLab (or MyStatLab) until you upgrade.

To upgrade to full access, use:

- The link in the email reminder from Pearson Education, or
- The MyMathLab (or MyStatLab) web site.

After you have upgraded your account, you will continue to have access to the entire course content including work you had already completed using temporary access.

Upgrading to Full Access using the Pearson Email Link:

1. Before your temporary access expires, click the link in the reminder email message.
2. Enter your Pearson username and password, then click "Sign In." IMPORTANT: Use the same username and password you used to set up temporary access. Do not create a new account.
3. When asked to select a payment option, select "Access Code" if you have purchased an access code. You may also pay for full access online using a major credit card or PayPal account.

The screenshot shows the 'My Courses from Pearson' interface. At the top, there are tabs for 'Active', 'Inactive', and 'Announcements' (with a notification badge). Below the tabs is a search bar labeled 'Select a course name to open it.' and 'Search this page'. A course card is displayed for 'hopper00399 Managerial Accounting'. A yellow banner at the bottom of the card reads 'Temporary access expires in 14 days. Upgrade access.' The 'Upgrade access.' text is circled in red. Below the banner, the course details are shown: 'Grace Hopper Jun 22, 2015 - Jun 22, 2017' and a 'Details' link. The MyAccountingLab logo is visible in the bottom right corner of the card.
